TIPS & INSIGHTS TO BRING HOME THE MAGIC OF CAMP DEERHORN

CAMP ★ DEERHORN

INTRODUCTION

While researching and writing Happy Campers, Audrey Monke solicited input and ideas from many different camp directors. She shares activities and strategies in the “Bringing Camp Home” section at the end of each chapter.

There are still many more ideas from summer camp to share with parents, teachers, and everyone else who works with and cares about raising a generation of kids who become thriving adults.

Here are some additional wisdom and ideas from Amy Broadbridge that you can incorporate to bring some of the magic of Camp Deerhorn home when your child returns.

WISDOM

“Every Sunday we have a “words of wisdom.” It’s non-denominational, it’s just a very short talk that one of our counselors gives about something that is meaningful in their life.”

~ Amy Broadbridge

“This summer your boy will grow. This is the keynote of our responsibility at Camp Deerhorn. We have planned and built for his fun today and his development tomorrow. We like to think that Camp Deerhorn carries to your boy something richer and more permanent than suntan, stronger muscles, clear eyes, inches and pounds. We believe he will take back with him, and possess through the years the prizes of character, courage, self-reliance, self-discipline, the capacity for friendship and consideration. In brief, those ideals of manhood which, every parent seeks to realize in his boy..”

~ Dr. Don Broadbridge

“We stick with boys because boys is what we know.”

~ Amy Broadbridge

TIPS & STRATEGIES

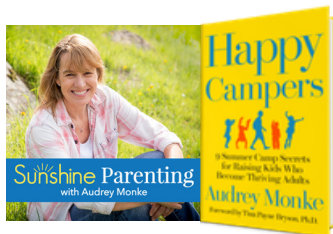

Make your child a turtle flipper. Teach them to “flip” people when they are down, or having a bad day. Teach them to always lend a helping hand to someone who is struggling.

Teach your child to think of others, not just themselves.
