TIPS & INSIGHTS TO BRING HOME THE MAGIC OF SKYLAKE YOSEMITE CAMP

INTRODUCTION

While researching and writing Happy Campers, Audrey Monke solicited input and ideas from many different camp directors. She shares activities and strategies in the “Bringing Camp Home” section at the end of each chapter.

There are still many more ideas from summer camp to share with parents, teachers, and everyone else who works with and cares about raising a generation of kids who become thriving adults.

Here are some additional wisdom and ideas from Adrienne Portnoy-Durgin that you can incorporate to bring some of the magic of Skylake Yosemite Camp home when your child returns.

WISDOM

“That sense of freedom that they [campers] have is pretty empowering.”

~ Adrienne Portnoy-Durgin

“One of the things I always tell the parents is to call us...even before camp we want that two way communication between us and them.”

~ Adrienne Portnoy-Durgin

“This is our seventy-fifth summer and for something to stay pretty similar, at the root, over that amount of time through so many changes of the world, it’s a really neat thing.”

~ Adrienne Portnoy-Durgin

TIPS & STRATEGIES

Eat dinner around a table together.

Ask your child what they are happy/sad/looking forward to. Check in with them every day and be consistent.

When you check in with your child, make sure you show genuine interest, children can tell when adults are faking it.
